

SARA LAM

Rural China Education Foundation

Co-Founded with Diane Geng

2007 Global Fellow

BIG BOLD IDEA

Create a teaching fellows program to recruit and partner with local teachers in rural China to develop new student-centered curricula and teaching methods that make use of local community resources.

PERSONAL BIO

Sara Lam, co-founder of the Rural China Education Fund, obtained an EdM in International Education Policy from the Harvard Graduate School of Education and her BA in Elementary Education from the University of Minnesota. She researched rural education and collaborated with various non-governmental organizations on rural education projects as a 2004-2005 Third Millennium Foundation Fellow, then continued on to pursue curriculum development and professional development work in rural and rural migrant communities, while developing Rural China Education Fund programs until 2010. She is currently a doctoral student in Curriculum and Instruction at the University of Wisconsin – Madison.

Organization/Fellow Location

Madison, United States

Impact Location

Asia

China

Organization Structure

Nonprofit

VISIT WEBSITE ↗

