

ALIX MARIKO WEBB

The Concrete River Project

1997 Global Fellow

PERSONAL BIO

Alix Webb is the Program Manager for the Poverty Initiative. Alix came to the Poverty Initiative having worked in and with poor people's organizations and in nonprofit management and program design. Alix has worked around the United States and particularly in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania with welfare rights activists, low-income Asian young people, leaders of local nonprofits, college students, artists, and other community leaders and members.

Impact Location

North America

United States

Organization Structure

Nonprofit

VISIT WEBSITE ↗

