

BRENDA ROGERS

Access Center for Education

2005 Global Fellow

BIG BOLD IDEA

Facilitate advocacy for parents of special needs students attending public schools through direct service provision.

ORGANIZATION OVERVIEW

The Access Center for Education is a small, parent-led organization helping low-income parents of students who have been denied needed programs and services in public schools.

PERSONAL BIO

Brenda Rogers works in special education advocacy, training, and education. Brenda is a 2005 Echoing Green Fellow.

Organization/Fellow Location

Murray, United States

Impact Location

North America

United States

Organization Structure

Nonprofit

VISIT WEBSITE ➔