

DAVID SCHWARTZ

The Real Food Challenge

Co-Founded with Anim Steel

2010 Global Fellow

BIG BOLD IDEA

Build a healthy, fair and green food economy by harnessing the political power of youth and the purchasing power of universities to shift demand toward socially responsible farm and food enterprises.

PERSONAL BIO

David Schwartz's experiences growing up in two communities with stark socioeconomic differences opened his eyes to the disparities in rates of diabetes, obesity, and access to healthy food. His experience is mainly in grassroots organizing and connecting with student leaders. While studying at Brown University, he co-founded the Sustainable Food Initiative, and worked with his co-founder, Anim Steel, on the Real Food Challenge.

Organization/Fellow Location

Providence, United States

Impact Location

North America

United States

Organization Structure

Nonprofit

VISIT WEBSITE

