

DIMETRIA JACKSON

Women and HIV Policy Development Project

1991 Global Fellow

PERSONAL BIO

Dimetria Jackson is Senior Vice President, General Counsel, Chief Compliance Officer and Secretary for First American Trust, FSB, a registered investment advisor, federal savings bank and trust company. In her current role, Dimetria oversees both the Legal and Compliance Departments and serves as Secretary of the Board. Dimetria is a member of First American Trusts Senior Management Team and serves on the Fiduciary Services Committee, Officers Trust and Investment Committee and as a non-voting member of the Directors Trust and Investment Committee. Prior to joining First American Trust in August 2000, Dimetria served as Vice President, Corporate Compliance Counsel for First American Title Insurance Company. Dimetria also worked as an Attorney for the Los Angeles County Counsels Juvenile Dependency Division. Following law school, she served as an Echoing Green Foundation Fellow with the National Health Law Program advocating both locally and nationally on Capitol Hill for the health care rights of low-income

Organization/Fellow Location

Santa Ana, United States

Impact Location

North America

United States

Organization Structure

Nonprofit