

JULIE CARNEY

Gardens for Health International

Co-Founded with Emma Clippinger

2009 Global Fellow

BIG BOLD IDEA

Enable HIV-positive individuals to improve their nutrition and health through low-cost sustainable agriculture practices.

PERSONAL BIO

Julie Carney believes that access to land and food are basic human rights, especially among vulnerable populations. Julie graduated from Yale in 2008 with a degree in Political Science and received the University's prestigious Gordon Grand Fellowship.

Issue area

Food and Agriculture

Organization/Fellow Location

Cambridge, United States

Impact Location

Africa

Rwanda

Organization Structure

Nonprofit

VISIT WEBSITE ↗

