

JULIEN PHILLIPS

Partners in School Innovation

Co-Founded with Kim Grose-Moore

1997 Global Fellow

BIG BOLD IDEA

Transform teaching and learning in the lowest-performing American public schools so that every child, regardless of background, thrives in school.

ORGANIZATION OVERVIEW

Partners in School Innovation enables public schools in high-poverty Bay Area communities serving students of color and English-language learners to achieve educational equity through school-based reform.

PERSONAL BIO

Julien Phillips received an MA and MBA from Stanford University, and served as a Peace Corps Volunteer from 1964-66. Julien also worked with McKinsey & Company for many years, where he specialized in managing major change in complex organizations. He is a founding board member of Ashoka, a board member of the Pacific School of Religion, and an organizing committee member of Teamworks Co-operative. Julien is also the co-founder and Executive Director emeritus of Partners in School Innovation.

Organization/Fellow Location

Hillsborough, United States

Impact Location

North America

United States

Organization Structure

Nonprofit

VISIT WEBSITE ↗

Twitter YouTube LinkedIn