

AARON BARTLEY

PUSH Buffalo

2005 Global Fellow

BIG BOLD IDEA

Organize Buffalo residents to reform housing policy in order to better serve low-income populations.

PERSONAL BIO

Aaron is a native of Buffalo and was educated in the city's public schools. Aaron has organized labor and student campaigns for economic justice, including the Harvard Living Wage Campaign and the Boston Justice for Janitors strike in 2002. Aaron is a graduate of Harvard Law School and has appeared in major media outlets as an advocate for low-income people.

Issue area

Poverty Alleviation Economic Development

Organization/Fellow Location

Buffalo, United States

Impact Location

North America

United States

Organization Structure

Nonprofit

VISIT WEBSITE ↗

f in